

11th Annual Business Excellence Awards

On Wednesday, November 12, 2008, North Vancouver's who's who of business gathered in the British Columbia Ballroom of the Fairmont Hotel Vancouver to celebrate business excellence for the 11th year with the North Vancouver Chamber of Commerce.

The process began at the end of August with a call for nominees from the community at large, continued with a short listing of nominees on October 23rd, and concluded with the announcement of the award recipients last Wednesday night.

Besides raising recipients' profiles in the community, the awards increase awareness and provide much deserved recognition to a handful of business leaders in the North Vancouver Community.

Although only one finalist could receive an award in each category, at the 11th Annual Business Excellence Awards, everyone was a winner!

For those of you who could not attend the awards, please visit the North Shore News website (www.nsnews.com) and view the video in the Spotlight section.

2008 BUSINESS EXCELLENCE AWARDS RECIPIENTS

Business Person of the Year

Peter Twist
Twist Conditioning

Peter Twist is an exercise physiologist and an 11 year NHL Conditioning Coach who has spearheaded Twist Conditioning Inc. a world-leader in sport-specific training and functional fitness. Twist offers educational resources, sport conditioning certifications, sport-fitness products, and athlete training facilities. Peter and his staff help aspiring athletes, industry professionals and motivated consumers achieve and exceed their goals.

Best Business

Tom Duguid
Arc'teryx

Arc'teryx was founded to build better outdoor sports gear. Arc'teryx produces high quality high-performance outerwear, backpacks and climbing harnesses. Their customers are anyone, including employees, who demand and want the very best mountain sports equipment. They are renowned for changing the outdoor and ski product markets with their product innovation, and for their high quality levels.